1. A Journal of the Corp of Discovery

ISBN #9780998092355 [Cognac]

Title page from the journal of Lewis and Clarke expedition to explore the Northwest Passage with the Corps of Discovery, under the orders and direction of Thomas Jefferson, soon after the Louisiana Purchase. By Patrick Gass, a member of the Corps, first published in 1807.

2. The North Pole

ISBN #9780998092331 [Dark Grey]

The title page from Robert E. Peary's account of his expedition to the North Pole, first published in 1910. Work included illustrations and maps of the trechorous journey.

3. A Description of the New England Colony

ISBN #9780998092317 [Light Brown]

Based on the title page from John Smith's account of the first permanent colony in America in the year 1614, including their significant trials and tribulations.

4. The Journal of Major George Washington

ISBN #9780998092348 [Dark Brown]

From George Washington's journal as a young Major sent by the Brittish to petition and warn the French forces to leave the Ohio country. The French and Indian War soon followed this daring expedition. First published in 1754, the work made Washington well-known throughout the colonies.

5. Journal of Sir Joseph Banks

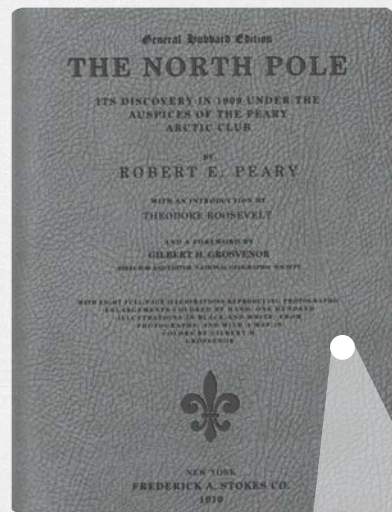

ISBN #9780998092300 [Tan]

Joseph Banks was a young botanist and amatuer scientist who accompanied Captain James Cook on his famous and dangerous first voyage into the pacific aboard the HMS Endeavor. His detailed first descriptions of the remote and exotic islands of the pacific ocean, such as Tahiti, enthraweled his readers.

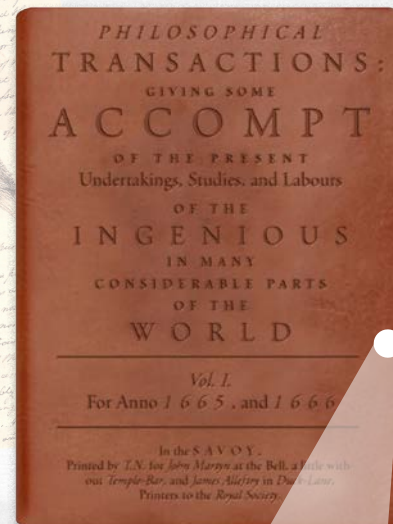

6. A Journal of Captain Cook's Last Voyage

ISBN #9780998092324 [Light Grey]

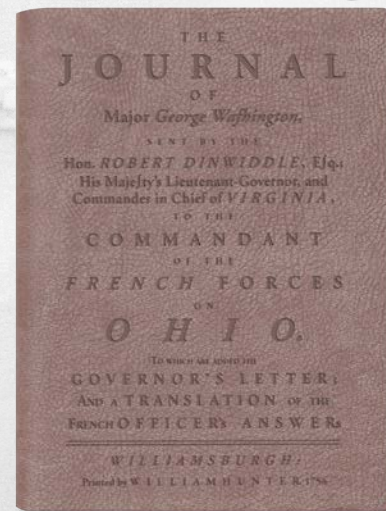

A journal describing Captain James Cook's third and final voyage to the Pacific ocean in the years 1776 to 1799. Cook never made it home from this journey, but was killed by natives in the islands of Hawaii.
